

Project Gargoyle

Copyright assignment and consent form

The purpose of this assignment and consent is to enable Leicestershire County Council and their successors to permanently retain and use the photographs and records created as part of 'Project Gargoyle'.

As present owner of the copyright of the photographs and associated written records contributed by me to Project Gargoyle, I hereby assign non-exclusive copyright to Leicestershire County Council. I understand that no payment is due to me for this assignment and consent. I understand that I am giving Leicestershire County Council the right to make available the photographs and written records in the following ways:

- as part of the Leicestershire and Rutland Historic Environment Record (HER) and any successor
- use in Council-funded publications, including print, audio or video cassettes or CD-ROMs
- publication worldwide on the Internet
- public performance, lectures or talks
- public reference purposes in libraries, museums and record offices
- use on radio or television to promote the Council's activities
- use in schools, universities, colleges and other educational establishments, including use in a thesis, dissertation or similar research

All other uses of this material, including use by commercial organisations where a reproduction fee might reasonably be expected, are excluded from this agreement.

I retain the right to make available these photographs and written records to any other persons or organisations.

Do you want your name to be disclosed? YES/NO

Signed:

Print name:

Date:

Address (including postcode):

Brief details of deposited material (e.g. names of parishes whose churches have been recorded). Continue overleaf if necessary.

Project Gargoyle

Copyright assignment and consent form

The purpose of this assignment and consent is to enable Leicestershire County Council and their successors to permanently retain and use the photographs and records created as part of 'Project Gargoyle'.

As present owner of the copyright of the photographs and associated written records contributed by me to Project Gargoyle, I hereby assign non-exclusive copyright to Leicestershire County Council. I understand that no payment is due to me for this assignment and consent. I understand that I am giving Leicestershire County Council the right to make available the photographs and written records in the following ways:

- as part of the Leicestershire and Rutland Historic Environment Record (HER) and any successor
- use in Council-funded publications, including print, audio or video cassettes or CD-ROMs
- publication worldwide on the Internet
- public performance, lectures or talks
- public reference purposes in libraries, museums and record offices
- use on radio or television to promote the Council's activities
- use in schools, universities, colleges and other educational establishments, including use in a thesis, dissertation or similar research

All other uses of this material, including use by commercial organisations where a reproduction fee might reasonably be expected, are excluded from this agreement.

I retain the right to make available these photographs and written records to any other persons or organisations.

Do you want your name to be disclosed? YES/NO

Signed:

Print name:

Date:

Address (including postcode):

Brief details of deposited material (e.g. names of parishes whose churches have been recorded). Continue overleaf if necessary.