

PROJECT GARGOYLE

Leicestershire and Rutland village-by-village

If you notice any errors or omissions in this document – or can offer any useful information (e.g. no church or no medieval carvings inside or outside) – then please email Bob Trubshaw bobtrubs@indigogroup.co.uk

This document will be updated regularly! Always check online at www.hoap.co.uk/gargoyle for the latest version. This version of Leicestershire and Rutland village-by-village was updated 3rd April 2018.

To help skim through I have greyed out churches which have been allocated or recorded, or known not to have any medieval carvings. I have also used blue to draw attention to churches which are of particular interest to Project Gargoyle – but if you want to take on a church which is neither in bold (not greyed out) then that's fine.

Don't forget that other people may have the same initials as you – for example there are two photographers with the initials JL. But if in doubt email Bob Trubshaw for clarification.
