LOCAL HISTORY COLLECTION
FOR REFERENCE ONLY

Dear Friends,

For at least 700 years the four places named on the cover of this magazine have been linked together in one ecclesiastical parish. For the last 68 years the East Akeleyan magazine has served the Loughborough area with local Church news. This has now ceased publication because most larger parishes prefer their own magazine.

So, for the first time, we have our own local magazine, sponsored by the Parochial Church Council. It will be distributed free of charge to every house. This is made possible by our advertisers (please use them) and by subsidy from the Church Council.

Contributions towards the cost of production will be welcome.

Lastly, what is the purpose of 'The Link'? It is to serve our communities with news of local events. It also witnesses to the fact that the Christian religion is concerned with every part of daily life - with Monday as well as Sunday.

I am the Editor for the time being, and I shall welcome local news and views for publication.

Thanks are due to the Church Council and Magazine Committee for this venture. They hope you will think it worthwhile.

Yours sincerely, Charles Trevor

For the last four years the Sunday Schools at Burton and Horton have sent £5 each to help pay for a Japanese girl to go to a Christian school. She is Maria Toshiko Kominame, known as Toshiko. She is seven and her father is an Anglican priest.
This is one way in which our children say
'Thank you' for the Christian heritage which most of us take too much for granted.
